

This lecture deals with the theory and practice of Gestalt-Therapy: the concept of Gestalt with its dynamic of figure and ground, the concept of the development of the human soul, its maturation and the barriers or so-called resistancies by the conditioning of the surrounding.